

Calgary Hotels (updated March 2009)

Please note this is provided for information only. Our events are NOT held at hotels at the moment, and we don't personally recommend any of these establishments.

Close to our May 2009 location	Motel Village area
These are the hotels closest to our May 2009 main location. This location is close to Nose Hill park, so you may also find that locations in the Motel Village area or Airport area may also work for you.	close to major routes, the university, football stadium, etc... LOTS of places to eat within walking distance, on the Light Rail Transit line to easily reach downtown and other areas without driving. Reasonably close to our May 2009 event.

Airport area	Downtown area
For guests coming in from the north, or those flying in, being located near the airport might be ideal. Located on major routes, but generally with poor access to public transit. Most seem to have dining establishments within short driving distance, but not a lot within walking distance. This is also close to our May 2009 event	Easy transit, lots of places to eat... but often parking is not great, and with lots of one-way roads downtown, you might find it hard to get around. Often significantly more expensive, but much easier if you plan on meeting people – as you're centrally located.

Macleod Trail	Deep south
Close to major transit routes, easy to get around, Macleod trail is a major road and is easy to find. Usually a handful of places to eat within walking distance, smaller restaurants	For those of you coming in from south of Calgary. Good highway access but generally far away from some of the other resources of the city.

and fast food are more common than larger fine dining establishments.
